Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have PAREGORIC or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a FEW DROPS TOO MANY will produce the SLEEP FROM WHICH THERE IS NO WAKING. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labelling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. CASTORIA DOES NOT CONTAIN NARCOTICS, if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

OH! MY BACK

A stubborn backache is cause to suspect kidney trouble. When the kidneys are inflamed and swollen, stooping brings a sharp twinge in the small of the back, that almost takes the breath away. Soon there may be other symptoms; scanty painful or too frequent urination, headaches, dizziness, or rheumatic pains. Don't wait for these troubles to become serious—use Doan's Kidney Pills at once. You'll find no better recommended remedy.

An Ohio Case

Mrs. H. Winter, 903 Betts St., Cincinnati, Ohio, says: "I was an invalid from kidney complaint and was confined to bed for months. My limbs were badly swollen and my whole body was racked with pain. My head ached for hours, I had dizzy spells and my health was all run down. Three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills completely cured me and I am now in good health."

PERFECTLY FAMILIAR TO HIM

Reason Why Carney Refused to Enhance Over the Glories of That Particular Sunset.

"Andy" Rohan, the detective-lieutenant, wit and good fellow, in his lifetime originated many stories of his quaint fellow-countrymen. He told this one about his good friend, Carney:

"A visitor to the city was struck by the beautiful sunset reflected on Lake Michigan, and, as long as he bought drinks, Carney listened to his ravings about the glories of nature. The stranger went on in words of color and elegant eloquence, but forgot to buy another. 'Ah—you should have seen that sunset,' he said, half closing his eyes and mooning. 'Go on, said Carney. 'You can't tell me anything about that sunset. The sun sets only about a mile from where I live.'"

IT SLUGS HARD.

Coffee a Sure and Powerful Bruiser.

"Let your coffee slave be denied his cup at its appointed time! Headache—sick stomach—fatigue. I know it all in myself, and have seen it in others. Strange that thinking, reasoning beings will persist in its use," says a Topeka man.

He says further that he did not begin drinking coffee until he was twenty years old, and that slowly it began to poison him, and affect his hearing through his nervous system.

"Finally, I quit coffee and the conditions slowly disappeared, but one cold morning the smell of my wife's coffee was too much for me and I took a cup. Soon I was drinking my regular allowance, tearing down brain and nerves by the daily dose of the nefarious beverage.

"Later, I found my breath coming hard, had frequent fits of nausea, and then I was taken down with bilious fever.

"Common sense came to me, and I quit coffee for good and went back to Postum. I at once began to gain and have had no returns of my bilious symptoms, headache, dizziness or vertigo.

"I now have health, bright thoughts, and added weight, where before there was invalidism and the blues.

"My brother quit coffee because of its effect on his health and now uses Postum. He could not stand the nervous strain while using coffee, but keeps well on Postum." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled, 15c and 25c packages.

Instant Postum—a soluble powder—dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water, and with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. 30c and 50c tins.

Both kinds are equally delicious and cost about the same per cup.

FLAVOR FOR WINTER MENUS

Few Things Are Better Than the Elderberry—How to Use It to the Best Advantage.

Elderberries are not eaten very widely, but they possess a delightful flavor, and the housekeeper with time—and elderberries—on her hands will do well to preserve them in several different ways, for they will furnish an unusual flavor to her winter menus.

Grape and Elderberry Preserve.—This is delicious. To make it allow equal quantities of elderberries and grapes and use a grape with decided, even tart, flavor, for the sweetness of the elderberry makes up for much tartness of grape. The grapes must be opened with a very sharp knife and the seeds must be removed. Allow as much sugar as the elderberries and grapes together weigh. Put the fruit in a preserving kettle and barely cover with cold water. Bring to the boiling point, skim and add a fourth of the sugar. Bring to the boiling point again, add another quarter of the sugar and boil for 20 minutes. Repeat until the sugar is all used and then boil until a little of the sirup jellies on a plate on the ice.

Pack into jars. Be careful not to break the grapes more than is absolutely necessary in the cooking.

Elderberry Jelly.—For this use half as much wild green grape juice as elderberry juice. Use a pound of sugar to each of juice and cook, skimming as the sirup simmers, until it jellies when tested on ice.

Elder Blossom Wine.—Pick from the stems enough blossoms to fill a quart measure when pressed down; add one gallon of cold water and steep 24 hours. Strain and add four pounds of sugar, three sliced lemons and one cup of yeast. Set away for two weeks, then strain carefully, pour into a jug and, after several months, bottle.

Canned Elderberries.—One peck of firm, ripe elderberries and one pint of strong vinegar, three pounds of brown sugar and one quart of molasses. Boil all together for five or ten minutes and bottle. The elderberries should be measured after picking from the stems.

Baked Pears.

Pare and core, without dividing, as many pears as you wish; place them in a pan and fill centers of pears with brown sugar. Add a little water and let them bake until perfectly tender. Serve with sweet cream or boiled custard.

An old-fashioned way is to place pears in a covered baking dish, without paring. Add one very small cupful of molasses to every two quarts of pears; but little water is necessary. Bake about two hours. If you wish, you may pare and core them, using one small cupful of sugar instead of molasses.

Italian Roast.

Take a nice piece of veal, cut around the bone and put in a small piece of garlic, salt and a few allspices. Make incisions in several places, putting in the seasoning; tie a leaf of celery on top of the roast with a small red pepper. Pour over a little olive oil and cook until tender, according to the size of the roast.

Tea-Rolls.

One pint of bread flour, two heaping teaspoonfuls baking powder, two of sugar, one of salt. Sift all together. Break one egg in one-half cupful of cream or rich milk. Then take two cupfuls or enough to make a thick batter when poured on the flour. Bake in roll tins until a light brown.

Apple Meringue.

Peel and core tart apples and boil; put through a colander and then sweeten the mash. To one pint of this pulp, stir up lightly the whipped whites of three eggs flavored with lemon. Set the dish in the stove, brown lightly and serve cold with cream.

Lemon Cookies.

Cream one cupful of butter with two of sugar, add three beaten eggs and flavor with lemon juice. Sift into this enough flour to make the dough stiff enough to handle, roll thin, cut out and bake.

Cream Cheese Salad.

Mash a cake of cream cheese, and add to it a few chopped walnuts and some chopped chives, also a dash of paprika. Make into balls with butter paddles, serve on lettuce leaves with French dressing.

Poor Man's Pudding.

Two quarts of sweet milk, two-thirds of a cupful of whole rice, one cupful of sugar, butter the size of a walnut, a little salt and grated nutmeg or a section of lemon peel. Put all together in a baking dish and bake until the rice is cooked through. A shorter way to make this pudding is to boil the rice first. The sweet can also be covered with a meringue flavored with lemon juice if the peel is used in the pudding.

5 Women Avoid Operations

For years we have been stating in the newspapers of the country that a great many women have escaped serious operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it is true.

We are permitted to publish in this announcement extracts from the letters of five women. All have been recently received unsolicited. Could any evidence be more convincing?

1. HODGDON, ME.—"I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached and I was so nervous I could not sleep, and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Me.

2. SHELBYVILLE, KY.—"I suffered from a severe female trouble. My right side hurt me badly—it was finally decided that I must be operated upon. When my husband learned this he got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking it a few days I got better and continued to improve until I am now well."—Mrs. MOLLIE SMITH, R.F.D., Shelbyville, Ky.

3. HANOVER, PA.—"The doctor advised a severe operation, but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it."—Mrs. ANA WILZ, 303 Walnut St., Hanover, Pa.

4. DECATUR, ILL.—"I was sick in bed and three of the best physicians said I would have to be taken to the hospital for an operation as I had something growing in my left side. I refused to submit to the operation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and it worked a miracle in my case, and I tell other women what it has done for me."—Mrs. LAURA A. GRISWOLD, 2437 East William Street, Decatur, Ill.

5. CLEVELAND, OHIO.—"I was very irregular and for several years my side pained me so that I expected to have to undergo an operation. Doctors said they knew of nothing that would help me. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I became regular and free from pain. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1538 Constant St., Cleveland, O.
